1. Between 10 and 13 September 1950 Soviet families with children and furniture arrived in Bad Freienwalde (N 53/V 23) and moved into the houses north of the Aradschuetzen Kaserne.*
2. Troops started returning from the troop training grounds on 12 September 1950. They arrived in groups of about 40 men aboard regular trains and carried field equipment. No heavy weapons or motor vehicles were observed to return. **

25X1 * Comment. The information conflicts with numerous reports on the evacuation of Soviet families to the U.S.S.R. during the summer of 1950 and with a Soviet order regarding the return of all Soviet dependents.

25X1 [REDACTED]
25X1  [REDACTED] Comment. Probably soldiers who came to Bad Freienwalde to turn in
